VANDERLINDEN WHEN LUXURY MEETS THE OUTDOORS

HIGH CARBON STEEL. FULLY HANDCRAFTED KNIVES.

Our Anvil knives stand as a fusion of high carbon steel and quality olive wood handles, resulting in a contemporary yet rugged aesthetic.

Designed in three sizes – Butcher, Chef's knife, and Utility – our collection caters to BBQ enthusiasts seeking a premium slicing experience without breaking the budget. The Anvil knives are more than just kitchen tools; they are eye-catchers, seamlessly blending into any culinary setting or outdoor adventure.

In our humble opinion, they make the perfect gift for any aspiring cook, adding an element of fun to every slicing and dicing session. Crafted entirely by hand from inception to completion, these knives boast high-quality carbon steel for durability and performance.

This year, we're thrilled to unveil new additions to our lineup, including the Anvil Steak Knives set. As well as Chef's Knives and Utility Knives featuring a stunning and robust ebony wood. These additions are set to captivate BBQ fanatics and become the ideal gift for any aspiring home chef.

FRENCH LUXURY TIMELESS DESIGNS

Your customers are already familiar with Laguiole steak knives, which have been made since 1829 in the town of Laguiole.

Crafted with precision, each Laguiole Steak Knife in our collection embodies the spirit of the first laguiole knives created nearly 200 years ago. The blades, made from high-quality 440 stainless steel, ensure unparalleled sharpness and durability, promising a seamless dining experience. The handles, adorned with intricate patterns pay homage to the heritage that defines Laguiole cutlery.

Beyond their aesthetic allure, these steak knives are crafted to elevate your dining experience. Non-serrated blades effortlessly glide through meats, ensuring a perfect cut every time. Their ergonomic design and balanced weight provide a comfortable grip, making them a joy to use at any dinner party.
